About Trexii

Trexii is the first Singaporean designer canvas toy, born in Singapore and manufactured in 2004. In 2024, we designated it Trexii (double “i”) and re-engineered the figure to a new shape, retaining the characteristic and neat “rotating head” function, to give it a fresh appearance. Trexii, the most recent name, represented its progress into a new generation.

A versatile canvas toy that can be customized in various styles by designers and artists using different mediums. Trexii is a stylish figure that embodies instant charm, individuality and is fun, contemporary, trendy, and inclusive.

Trexii speaks in multiple languages and rises above worldwide borders, coming to gatherings of people at all levels without any boundaries. This designer canvas toy could be a remarkable medium for different ideas and imaginations of the customers. It serves as an exceptional communication and branding platform—a energetic all-in-one bundle that meets all your needs.
